

FOUND, AT LAST!

We have tried them all and find that the only sure way to make and hold trade is to sell GOOD GOODS for SMALL PROFITS, and in order to do this we are always hunting manufacturers who are in need of money and willing to sacrifice goods for ready cash. We have been very successful in finding them, and found them needing cash very badly. So we bought largely of strictly All Wool Goods, and are in shape to offer our patrons and the public generally that we guarantee to be worth twice the value. The profit is not what we are after, at present. We want every person who comes or can be induced to come to Maysville to know that we will sell them good goods cheaper than any house in the State, and will consider it a favor, if any one is dissatisfied with a purchase in our store, to return it to us. The GOLD WATCH we give away July 1st can be seen in our show window—we give a ticket for a chance on the same with every dollar purchase.

ALL WOOL SUITS AT $6.00 and UPWARDS

AGNEW'S ANTICS.

A Vanceburg Man Held for Obtaining Goods Under False Pretenses.

On the 2nd of last January H. F. Agnew, of Vanceburg, was arrested at Cincinnati on a warrant sworn out before Squire Bright by Louis Manss, of Manss Bros. Boot and Shoe Company, of that place, for obtaining goods under false pretenses.

The Commercial Gazette says: "The offense was committed in February, 1887. It is claimed that Agnew made statements that he did not owe any one, and had on hand a stock of goods worth at least $2,500 or $3,000, all paid for, when in fact he was indebted to firms in the city and elsewhere in large sums. On his statements of freedom from indebtedness, however, the Manss Bros. sold Agnew 686 pairs of shoes to the value of $1,094.44. About the same time Marks Bros. & Marks, a wholesale clothing firm of this city, also swore out a warrant before Squire Bright against H. F. Agnew for obtaining goods under false pretenses to the amount of $1,539.30. It is claimed that Agnew made similar statements to them, alleging that he only owed $200 to the Manss Bros., and that he had married a rich girl, and also was the bappy possessor of a wealthy father. Shortly after this Agnew failed, and his creditors received about 19 cents on the dollar.

"The cases, which have been continued seven times, came up for examination before Squire Bright Thursday. A number of witnesses were heard, and the evidence was so in accordance with above facts that Agnew was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $1,000. The hearing lasted about four hours, the principal witnesses being the firms interested in the sale of goods to Agnew."

Aberdeen Marriages.

During the month of March Squire Beasley of Aberdeen married twenty-five couples, in April twenty-six couples and in May up to the 30th, twenty-three couples, making a total of seventy-four nuptial knots tied by him in the period referred to. The parties were principally from Kentucky, hailing from various counties, but one came all the way from St. Louis, one from Iowa, one from Illinois and one from Indianapolis.

SAYS the Commercial-Gazette: "Geo. M. Keefer, late Secretary-Treasurer of the D. Keefer Milling Company, of Covington, that used to be and who figured prominently in the affairs ending in the assignment of that firm, and in its transactions with the First National Bank of Covington, is again at home; has been in fact for two weeks past occupying the old family homestead in the city across the river. He is there to remain, permanently, too, so he thinks. Concerning the troubles of the late firm and its relations with the bank, Mr. Keefer declined to say anything, preferring to let matters take their course in the courts, where they are at present."
